WILSON ASKS RED CROSS AID

Local Chapter Will Help National Organization Raise Funds.

President Wilson has issued a call urging all those who can contribute sums to alleviate the war suffering to contribute to the Red Cross. The President has also created a War Council within the Red Cross Society to meet the extraordinary demands upon its services both in the field and in civilian relief. Greater efficiency in relief work, he thinks, will be secured by entrusting it to a single organization which has been recognized by law and international convention.

The Rev. W. W. Elwang, president of the local Red Cross chapter, received this information this morning from the Washington headquarters. The Columbia chapter will immediately co-operate with the national organization in the efforts to raise money. Columbia citizens will be called upon for contributions as soon as the chapter can formulate its plans for raising funds. Mr. Elwang says that in the meantime, every citizen of Columbia ought to enroll as a member of the local chapter. The dues are $1, $2, or $5 a year and entail no further responsibility.

BLOODED HORSE BRINGS $10,000

Johnnie Jones Sold by E. D. Moore to M. H. Oppenheim at New York.

E. D. Moore has returned from a trip through the East, where he bought, sold and exhibited saddle horses. Among the horses Mr. Moore sold in New York were: Johnnie Jones, who sold for $10,000; Jack Barrymore, the world champion saddle horse; Mystic Maid; Highland Barriger; Myrian; Queen of the Walnuts; Ruby Lane and Lucille Drew.

Johnnie Jones and Jack Barrymore were bought by Myron H. Oppenheim of New York and are probably the two highest-priced saddle horses in the world owned by one man. Mr. Oppenheim has given Mr. Moore permission to exhibit them at the Western horse shows this season.

On his way home Mr. Moore stopped at Chicago and held a saddle horse sale at the International Amphitheater. He will leave for Chicago soon with another lot of horses.

URGES INCREASE IN LIVE STOCK

Prof. E. A. Trowbridge in Article Says Production is Patriotic Work.

"Conserve and Increase Live Stock" is the title of an article by Prof. E. A. Trowbridge of the animal husbandry department of the University appearing in the Farmer and Stockman of May 10. Professor Trowbridge urges an increase in live stock resources, as a shortage, due to the war, will make it an "enterprise of great financial opportunity as well as a patriotic service and duty."

In the same issue is a review of "Self-Feeders for Fattening Swine. With Directions for Constructing Self-Feeders" of Bulletin 44 by Professors L. A. Weaver and E. W. Lehmann of the College of Agriculture. Missouri tests show more rapid gains are derived from hand-feeding, but little or no difference in economy.

Collector's Office Gets New Fixtures.

A large, new office desk, about ten feet long, has been received for the office of Berry W. Jacobs, city collector. It is expected that the desk will be put in use within a few days. A steel filing cabinet has also been ordered for the office. Mr. Jacobs will begin the loose-leaf system of bookkeeping about June 15. He says that it will require only about one-third of the time to attend to the new system that it does for the present one.

Lee School Grading Contract Let.

The Board of Education has let the contract for the grading of the Lee School grounds to George Barkwell. This work is being done in connection with the building of an addition to this building. Superintendent J. E. McPherson is placing orders now for equipment for the Eugene Field and Douglass schools and for the addition to the Lee building.

Former Football Player Recommended for Paymaster Position.

William C. Preston of South Greenfield, a former member of the Tiger football team, has written a letter to David M. Warren, a student in the School of Journalism, telling of conditions in Washington. Preston recently passed the examinations for an assistant paymaster's position in the United States Navy. He writes in part:

"May 1 was the day set for reporting at Washington, but as the officers could examine only 15 persons a day and there were 99 applicants (college students from all over the nation) for the thirty-five positions, it took the examiners all week to finish the work.

"I passed and have been recommended for the Bureau of Navigation and am subject to call any time. We will be placed in a training camp for three months. We have not been told what we will be drilled in, but I suppose it will be bookkeeping, accounting and many other subjects. We will be exempt from all shore or beach duty. The job will pay $1,700 a year in port and $1,870 on board ships, with allowances."

The "DIFFERENCE" between a "TALKING MACHINE" and a "NEW EDISON RE-CREATIVE PHONOGRAPH" IS THIS—

stands alone and is destined to play an important part in the musical culture of the home. Even our Government will permit the use of the word re-creation to apply only to the New Edison. Why? Because only with the New Edison will artists sing in tone test. Don't you want a musical instrument that brings the artists' living tones in your home so perfectly that they cannot be distinguished from the original? Fully as much as encyclopaedias, dictionaries and good pictures belong in your home, so does the New Edison.
